Explanation

General information

The Dutch Association of Insurers' Home Contents Value Calculator is an aid to establish the approximate value of household contents in a straightforward and objective fashion, primarily if you wish to take out or change a home insurance policy. The Home Contents Value Calculator's point system is based on the results of a survey of the value of the household contents of a large number of households in the Netherlands held in 2007. That survey revealed that the value of the household contents could be established quite accurately on the basis of the age and income of the principal breadwinner, the composition of the household and the surface area of the dwelling.

Attention:

1. The Home Contents Value Calculator may only be used if the principal breadwinner's net monthly income does not exceed EUR 4,850.- and/or the surface area of the dwelling does not exceed 300 m².
2. The Home Contents Value Calculator is only intended as an aid to establish the approximate value of your household contents; the results may not be used as the appraised value within the meaning of the law. Furthermore, we recommend that this Home Contents Value Calculator is only used in combination with insurance with a guarantee against underinsurance.

The principal breadwinner's net monthly income

This is given to mean: the total net monthly income of the principal breadwinner of the household. The income may consist of wages, a salary, income from the principal breadwinner's own business, a pension, received maintenance, a state pension or other social benefits. Interest and income from investments should not be included.

Surface area of the dwelling

This is given to mean: the surface of area of the interior floor (length X breadth) of all habitable and/or walkable rooms of the dwelling and any private outside (storage) rooms that might be present, such as sheds, garages or basement storage boxes.

Audiovisual and computer equipment

This includes:

- Image and sound equipment
- Computer equipment: desktops, workstations, servers, laptops, netbooks, notebooks, tablets, etc.
- Accessories belonging to the equipment listed above and current software game consoles and game software
- Sound, image and information carriers: CDs, DVDs, USB flash drive, memory cards, hard disks, CD/DVD burners
- Telephones: mobiles, smartphones, including pre-paid cards

Personal jewellery

This includes jewellery, including watches, intended to be worn on the body, and manufactured, partly or fully, from precious metals or other precious materials, stones, minerals, pearls, (red) coral or other similar materials.

Non-standard possessions

This is given to mean valuable, non-standard possessions such as: collections, antiques, works of art and musical instruments.

Tenant's fixtures and fittings

Tenant's fixtures and fittings are given to mean all changes and improvements to the rented dwelling that you, the occupier, have made. This includes such things as improvements to the central heating system, kitchen and bathroom/toilet installations, panelling, parquet and tiled flooring, small sheds and fences. You do not need to fill anything here if you are the owner of the house or apartment.
